Seventh Victory Loan Quota $480,600

On Monday, Oct. 23, Canada's Seventh Victory Loan Campaign will open. As in the Sixth Loan this district will be part of Unit No. 39, embracing Sidney-North Saanich, Gulf Islands, Saanich Outer Wards, View Royal, Colwood, Langford, Metehosin, Sooke district, Port Renfrew and Clooose.

A break-down of the figures allotted as quotas for the various sub-units gives district totals as follows:

Saanich Outer Wards	$265,500
Sidney-North Saanich	122,000
Salt Spring Island	66,000
North and South Pender Islands	14,300
Mayne Island	6,000
Cadano Island	6,000
Saturna Island	800

$480,600

SIDNEY-NORTH SAANICH QUOTA $122,000

At a meeting of the North Saanich War Finance Committee, held in the sub-unit headquarters, S. Roberts Agency, on Beacon Ave., last Friday, Major G. S. Yardley, unit organizer, outlined the quotas for the district. F. J. Baker of Sidney, will head the local group. Mr. J. J. White, and sub-unit secretary Mrs. P. W. Belson were also present, as were Mrs. Hammond, and Robin Cran, unit secretary and assistant organizer, respectively.

An inspirational film, written and narrated by Napier Moore, editor of McLean Magazine, was shown. It was decided that similar films would be used at small group meetings throughout the period of the loan drive.

The slogan for the Seventh Loan is "Invest in Victory" and the policy "Buy one more than before."

SAVINGS MADE SIMPLE

In order to allow every citizen to participate to the fullest extent in the Seventh Victory Loan, October 23 to November 1, the National War Finance Committee has arranged several savings plans.

Besides buying bonds with their ready cash, individuals may use the monthly savings plan, whereby they can save by regular payments over the next six months.

Employees of most large establishments may take advantage of the payroll savings plan to have their bonds paid for by regular deductions from their earnings over a six months' period.

For those whose income is irregular—farmers, fruit growers, cattle breeders, fishermen—the deferred payment plan is an ideal method of buying bonds. This plan enables the investor to make a small deposit and then pay for his bonds at any time within six months. The interest earned by the bonds will carry them for this

This method will appeal to proprietors without additional charges. Professional men and those who have retired on investment income, also to merchants who might not have funds available until inventories are liquidated.

These savings arrangements should make it possible, in this Victory Loan that calls for all-out individual effort, for every one of us to follow the Loan slogan and "Buy one more than before."

LOCAL BANK DOUBTFUL

In a statement to The Review last week, G. W. Spinney, president of the Bank of Montreal, said that when the time is ripe for reopening the office in Sidney on a full-time basis the proposal will receive most favorable consideration.

Mr. Spinney pointed out that difficulties in the matter of staff will probably hold up the reopening, many of the bank's employees are at present on Active Service.

G. W. Douglas, manager of the Government Street branch of the bank is in close touch with business affairs here. A month-end office is maintained.

Mr. Spinney is now en route to Montreal, following a trip through the Okanagan Valley. "I had a most enjoyable stay on Vancouver Island," said Mr. Spinney, "and was sorry to have to come away."

Joe Thomas Honored at Party

Well over 70 friends met to welcome Joe Thomas, home on leave from active service, at the K.P. Hall on Friday, Oct. 13.

Organized by T. Morgan, the party danced to music supplied by the men of the 22nd R.C.A. At supper, a large cake iced with "Welcome Home" was cut. In a brief speech, Mr. Morgan welcomed home the guest of honor, Joe Thomas, who is home on 30 days' leave from Paratroop duties in Europe, was severely wounded in action. He thanked the "gang" for their hospitality and party. Following supper dancing continued until an early hour.

Canada is a wholly self-governing nation, makes her own laws and treaties, pays no taxes to any other country, is as free and independent as United States or Britain.

$1056 Donated To Salvation Army Home Front Appeal

The 1944 Salvation Army Dominion-wide Home Front Appeal is over. The sum of $1,056 was donated in the Saanich district, this is $53 more than was obtained in last year's drive.

The fine work done by members of the Saanich Peninsula branch of the Canadian Legion cannot be overemphasized. On a purely volunteer basis, workers covered the district and worked hard to obtain the splendid total.

The fine showing is indicative of the fine standing of the Salvation Army. A resident who has sons serving in France and who was in action in the last war says: "I am proud to see that the money will be well spent."

The branch of the Canadian Legion wish to thank all those who canvassed and otherwise assisted in making the drive the success it was.

WINSTON CHURCHILL VISITS FRANCE

The British Prime Minister travelled to France in a destroyer on June 12 and spent several hours ashore. He visited headquarters and drove round a part of the bridgehead in a jeep. He was given a whole-hearted welcome by the troops. Later he toured various parts of the waterfront in a motor boat. He was accompanied by Field Marshal Sir Allan Brooke, chief of the Imperial General Staff, and General Smuts, and was met by General Montgomery.

The Prime Minister is at present in Moscow conferring with Marshal Stalin.

"INVEST IN VICTORY"

Next week, the Victory Loan salesmen will commence soliciting subscriptions to the Seventh Victory Loan. This time, the people of North Saanich have been allotted a quota of $122,000 as their share of the money Canada requires to carry on the war.

As in the six previous Loans, our success will depend on the wholehearted support of every person in a position to buy Bonds, whether it be for Fifty Dollars or Five Thousand and as we have never yet failed to back up our fighting men by doing this necessary duty of the home front, I am confident that we shall maintain our record.

However, we must not overlook the fact that $122,000 is a lot of money to raise in a small non-industrial community so that a mere "token" subscription will not be sufficient. The war is by no means over, and the situation still makes it necessary that we continue to exercise the most rigorous personal thrift in order to keep our war machine going full blast, and also to build up an ever increasing reserve of widely distributed purchasing power in the form of Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates to provide jobs for all when the war is finally won.

Allies Chapter I.O.D.E. Plan Manifold Activities

The October meeting of the Allies Chapter, I.O.D.E. was held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. J. Baker, with the Regent, Mrs. Lela Cox, in the chair. In the absence of Mrs. Cox, the secretary, Mrs. Baker was appointed acting secretary.

No business arising out of the minutes, the correspondence was dealt with next, and a letter from Mrs. Fairline in regard to national life memberships for Mrs. Spratt and Mrs. Martin of the provincial executive, was read and approved by the members, who empowered the Regent to send their donation to Mrs. Fairline.

The report of the September meeting of the provincial executive was then read and discussed, and concerning the paragraph re war-brides, the Regent reported having had a letter about a war-bride soon to be a member of the community.

A letter from Mrs. Gorton, president of the local committee of the W.R.A.C., asking for two representatives from the chapter to be appointed to the committee, was read, and Mrs. Goddard was asked to take Mrs. Skinner's place as the chapter representative until Mrs. Skinner was able to take up her duties again. Mrs. Harper was appointed as the second member to represent the chapter on the W.R.A.C. committee.

Mrs. Baker then read a letter from the provincial war savings convener, explaining the competition being held during the summer to increase the sale of stamps. The chapter in the province first receiving their assigned quota were to be given prizes of electrical equipment now unobtainable in the stores, which they might sell or raffle to increase chapter funds.

Mrs. Baker reported that the executive had decided to enter the chapter in this contest and with the co-operation of the members were able to go beyond our quota of stamps, and to win an electric hot-plate for the chapter.

The Regent thanked Mrs. Baker, on behalf of the chapter, for her capable management of the matter, in the absence of Mrs. Peck, the war savings stamp convener, due to illness. It was decided that the raffling of the hot-plate be postponed until the November meeting.

The treasurer reported that the chapter finances were in a very satisfactory state, with $109.92 in the chapter funds, and $11.82 in the war services. Adoption of the report was seconded by Mrs. Goddard.

A motion was made by Mrs. Goddard, seconded by Mrs. Bruce, that the chapter make its usual contribution of $5 each to secondary education, the endowment fund, Mary Croft cot and work in India, to which members agreed.

Mrs. Bruce, the educational secretary, reported that the calendars must soon be ordered, and it was moved by Mrs. Baker, seconded by Mrs. Harper, that Mrs. Bruce should order whatever calendars she thought necessary.

Mrs. Goddard, war services convener, then made her report of the work done during the summer. She reported the disposal of hospital and service canteens of 565 magazines and 95 books, and the giving of two bundles of clothing to Russian Relief and one to Chinese.

SERVICE GRATUITIES

Application forms for war service gratuities are now available at all naval, military and air force units and establishments in Canada and all district and sub-district offices of the Pensions department, headquarters announced today.

In making the announcement headquarters urged that honorably discharged members of the active service forces and dependents of deceased members of such forces apply immediately for the gratuities provided under legislation passed at the last session of parliament.

Under the legislation, active service personnel will receive $7.50 for every 30 days' service in the western hemisphere, which includes the West Indies, Newfoundland and South America; $15 for every 30 days' service overseas, including the Aleutians, Iceland and Greenland; seven days' pay and allowances for each six months' service overseas, and a re-establishment credit.

Members of the home defence army who served in Kiska are entitled to gratuities covering the period of their service there. Other home defence troops, however, receive no benefits under the legislation.

Nationals of other countries who served in Canadian forces are entitled to the gratuities.

Headquarters said that application forms should be obtained at the most convenient place and forwarded, after completion, to the Ottawa headquarters of the service to which a man last belonged.

Sidney Red Cross Group Praised

The following excerpts from a letter written by Lieut. W. O. Catherine Macdonald, No. 8 Can. Gen. Hospital, B.L.A., dated Sept. 9, from somewhere in France, speak for themselves.

Lieut. Macdonald is the daughter of Major A. D. Macdonald, Sidney:

Dear Mum and Red Cross

Sewing Circle:

You have no idea what a wonderful job all of you are doing and how very important it all is. You have probably wondered why you have to make those bags, known as battle bags, which measure about 14 to 18 inches long and about 10 wide. Well they are some of our "most wanted things." The lads use them for their personal belongings. Really the more I see of all this the more I praise the Red Cross and all of you—so keep up the good work.

At the moment while writing I have on some Red Cross gloves—I wish I could have those fingerless ones. It is my night on in the admitting room and three of us, the sergeant, the corporal and I are huddled over a small oil stove, on top of which sits the dirty dish water in which I wash the tea bowls, and all of us are writing home.

PROPOSED PENINSULA MARINE DRIVE WILL INCLUDE FIFTH ST.

As a result of the decision of the Victoria Real Estate Board at its last meeting, a preliminary plan was shown to the members of the board held last Friday in Victoria. The plan is of the proposed Saanich Peninsula Scenic Drive.

Encircling the peninsula, the road, if it followed the plan would require hard surfacing of only 10 1/4 miles of dirt or gravel road and construction of three and three-quarter miles of road link to complete the circuit.

The proposed plan showed a one and three-quarter mile stretch of dirt or gravel road extending from Sayward and Fowled Roads to Martindale Road, followed by a three-quarter mile road link to Telegraph Road, with a half mile unsurfaced road and a one-and-a-half-mile road link carrying through the East Saanich Indian Reserve along the coastline, to be picked up by an unsurfaced road running around Saanichton Bay until it ran into the old C.N.R. railway, where it intersected with Mount Newton Road.

The drive would then continue along the railway bed to Sidney, from where hard-surfaced road ran alongside Shoal Harbor, to be connected up with one and a half miles of road link and two and three-quarter miles of unsurfaced road, rimming the head of the peninsula until it picked up the hard-surfaced road at Deep Cove.

From there the drive would carry on around the airport, eventually running into the West Saanich Road at Cole Bay, and running on into Quadra Street and so back into Victoria, with the city's coast roads completing the circuit.

It is proposed the plan will be submitted to the provincial government, the city and municipalities concerned.

E. Gwynne Captures J. J. White Trophy

The ladies' section, Ardmore Golf Club, last week finished a very successful summer season with the playing of the J. J. White Handicap Cup competition. The result was a tie between Miss Gwynne and Miss Blackburn, with Miss Gwynne winning the play-off, and Miss Blackburn coming second, and Mrs. Henderson third.

The first summer eclectic competition held during June and July, was won by Mrs. Henderson, with Miss Gwynne and Miss Diana Fraser tied for second place. In the August and September eclectic, Miss Diana Fraser was the winner in the A division, with Mrs. Henderson in second place, and Miss Gwynne in third. The C division eclectic was won by Mrs. Baker.

Rev. W. Turner Bids Farewell

The church service on Sunday evening was conducted as usual by the Rev. W. Turner, rector of St. Steven's and St. Mary's parishes, Saanichton. Messrs. G. Mead-Robins and N. MacNaughton rendered a duet, Liddle's "Abide With Me." This being the rector's last visit to James Island before leaving with his family to take up new duties in Calgary, the congregation remained after the service for a social gathering. Tea and refreshments were served by the ladies.

Mrs. Turner, who accompanied her husband, was given a small Colonial bouquet by little Marjorie McCreech.

Mr. G. Mead-Robins, rector's warden, on behalf of the local parishioners, presented Mr. Turner with a cheque. Mr. N. MacNaughton expressed the appreciation of Mr. Turner's work on the Island.

Strength in Unity

By the end of 1943, the Transport and General Workers Union had 1,122,480 members. The Amalgamated Engineering Union 920,000. Mr. Ernest Bevin, Britain's Minister of Labor, was once general secretary to the former union, which is now the largest in the world; its membership includes 269,354 women.

Isabella Point Road Work

Quite a lot of road work is being done on the Isabella Point Road; widening and grading on Jackson's Hill is a great improvement. A bulldozer run by Mr. Nels Bigman has been busy cutting down the steep hill, making a gradual slope. It is intended to continue widening the road to Isabella Point.

Search Abandoned For 11 Flyers in Crash

Hope has been abandoned of finding any more bodies from the crash of the big R.C.A.F. Liberator bomber which crashed with its crew of 11 men in Sansum Narrows early this month.

Since Friday no more search parties have been sent out. Air Vice-Marshal F. V. Heakes, G.B., air officer commanding Western Air Command, today expressed the sincere thanks of the Royal Canadian Air Force for the invaluable co-operation of people of the Gulf Islands, North Saanich and other districts in reporting the crash of the bomber. "The whole-hearted help offered us is typical of the fine spirit of Canada's West Coast population," said A.V.-M. Heakes.

Members of the Salt Spring Island Ranger unit kept search parties on the field for three days and investigated many reports from persons who thought they had observed parachutes or wreckage. Many residents of the district heard the explosion, the force of which shook many homes on Salt Spring Island.

Salvage crews have now cleared the area and a flame scarred area of rock remains as only evidence of the tragedy.

Official list of those missing follows: FO. L. T. Jordan, captain, Kellogg, Surrey; Sgt. B. G. Barker, second pilot, Lowestoft, Suffolk; PO. E. C. Mitchell, navigator, Swindon, Wiltshire; PO. P. D. Metcalfe, bombardier, Lancaster, Lancs.; Sgt. C. P. Davidson, wireless air gunner, Ashford, Middlesex; Sgt. L. P. Willett, wireless air gunner, Long Eaton, Nottinghamshire; PO. A. Rockcliffe, air gunner, Southport, Lancs.; Sgt. A. J. Birrell, air gunner, Dumfries, Scotland; Sgt. P. Law, air gunner, Newcastle-on-Tyne; Sgt. L. M. Langley, air gunner, Alveston, Derbyshire; Sgt. W. N. Jenkins, air gunner, Trexgar, Monmouth, Wales.

Up to press time on Wednesday, more than 1,100 books had been distributed. It is expected that more than 1,700 will be needed for the depot.

SIDNEY, V.I., B.C., Wednesday, October 18, 1944

THE SEVENTH VICTORY LOAN

Sidney-North Saanich and the Gulf Islands will be asked to loan $215,100 during the next three weeks. This sum is more than the amount sought in the Sixth Loan. It is a large sum of money. The task is not too large, however, for the district. By team work, and a realization that no better investment is possible, the sum will be quickly subscribed.

The war is far from won. Some idea of the terrific cost of actual warfare is given by General Eisenhower when he states that in the first 70 days of operations in Northern France, more than 900 tanks, 1,750 jeeps, 3,000 airplanes had to be replaced—150,000 tons of ammunition a month were expended. A total of 44,000,000 gallons of aviation gasoline were used, and 55,000 tons of bombs were dropped.

The money raised in previous loans was used to build the factories, the bases, to train the men. The money raised in this loan will finish the job... will enable the products from the factories, the bases, and the personnel from the training camps put the stranglehold on Hitler's Europe. The end may come soon... this we do not know. We do know, however, that we must do our share in preparing the way for those who will use the tools of war. This we can do by buying the Seventh Victory Loan Bonds. Invest in Victory. Buy one more than before.

"ADMIRAL" ISLAND

An article under the heading "Pioneer Days" elsewhere in this issue will probably stir the memory of many readers of The Review. More particularly the item concerning the name of Salt Spring Island. In 1924 quite a controversy arose when a reader, in a letter to the paper, suggested that the name be changed to "Admiral Island."

The Islanders were aroused, irate residents wrote reams concerning the matter. "An Old Gulf Islander" asked, doubtless with a touch of sarcasm, if the name "Gran Canal de Nuestra Señora del Rosario, la Marinería" should be the name given the Gulf of Georgia, for that, he pointed out, was the name originally given the Gulf by an officer in the Spanish Navy. Incidentally, the writer was the proposer of the name "Admiral" for the island. This suggestion brought forth another volley of letters concerning the true definition of the word "Gulf"... should it be "Strait"... and so it went. How pleasant to contemplate such discussions, ringing, as they do, so truly of peacetime. How fortunate we are on these tranquil islands, while further out in the Pacific other islands are being devastated with bomb and bullet. Perhaps it would not be out of place here to mention that the Seventh Victory Loan is an excellent way of insuring that tranquility.

Pioneer Days

Taken from the files of the Sidney Review of 20 years ago.
Pender Island: A special meeting of ratepayers was called to discuss improvements on the school building. A two-room school, to cost $1,300, was mooted.

Ganges: Meteorological report for September read as follows: Maximum temperature, 85; minimum, 42; mean, 58.28. Total rainfall 2.36 inches.

Fulford Harbour. The new ferry was about to be inaugurated by Mr. J. Hepburn. Cars, passengers and freight will be transported to the new wharf at Swartz Bay.

The telephone was completed from the northern tip of Salt Spring Island at Fernwood to Beaver Point. Over four tons of wire being used on the extended system.

Sidney: Sidney was successful in retaining the David Spencer Trophy at the Saanichton Fair School Sports, thus becoming permanent holders of the cup.

Yankee rum runners were reported active in the islands.

Due to the high cost of playing cards the hostess of 1924 was advised to place the soiled cards on a flat surface, sprinkle with talcum powder and rub with a clean, dry, soft cloth. The results were reported to be amazing.

The Mill Bay Ferry opened on October 6, with regular trips across Saanich Arm.

Salt Spring Island: A letter protesting the proposed change of name of the island to "Admiral" read in part: "Salt Spring refers to the saline springs near Vesuvius, and suggest possibilities, which may be made use of."

The Old Soldier

I 'ears tell as 'ow in England, that there's a blee-din' war;
An' the blasted German army, is on the march
once more,
That the blinkin' Nazi hair force, as made an haw-ful mess;
So I'm off t' town tomorrow, I join hup with the rest.

I 'rends as 'ow in England that they're needin' thousands more,
T' man the blasted "Hack Hacks, an' guard the blinkin' shore;
An' although I ain't a young an, an' could never learn t' fly,
I'm goin' t' join tomorrow, or know the reason why.

OUT OF THE MIST

By KIPPER.

There are some particularly "fruity" daily newspapers published in Britain. Perusing one of these recently I read aloud, with anguish in my voice, an item which told of the arrest of a 19-year-old U.S. Navyman. He was alleged to have stabbed to death two British Royal Marines, with a knife, the article stated, in the American Red Cross Services Club in Greenock, Scotland.

Expecting at least the customary, Tch, Tch from the lady of the house, I was slightly taken aback when the comment came: "After all, the clubs aren't for that sort of thing!"

Listening in to a discussion on old-time remedies—I firmly believe in the sniffing of salt and soda for instance, for a common cold and sinus trouble—even I pooch-pooched the use of cow manure to cure pneumonia, only to find, however, that there are many who have knowledge of its successful use. It was used in place of linseed, brian, etc., for poultices.

It seems incredible, but it's true. A bird was once found guilty of witchcraft. At Basle, Switzerland, in the 14th century, a barnyard cock laid an egg. A trial was held, the bird was found guilty, and with its egg burned publicly by the town executioner.

It seems strange, even here in Sidney. But driving at the extreme end of the peninsula recently I was stopped by an irate orchardist who suspected me of stealing apples and pears from her orchard. It appears that sneak thieves really do steal the fruit. The same evening a friend asked me if I needed fruit, said that he couldn't give the stuff away this year.

The story of the small boy from the city who, tasting fresh eggs for the first time remarked: "I don't like these eggs, they have neither taste nor smell," was brought to memory by the lady, a newcomer here, who, observing a cartful of struggling fish in the streets of Sidney, said to the Chinaman shoving the load: "They do take a long time to die, don't they?" "Oh no," came the reply, "my fish velly flesh."

A letter to the Editor of a famous periodical read as follows: "Please give your views on platonic friendship, and the 'do's' and 'don'ts.'" The reply was printed thusly: There are only the "don'ts."

This quiz is designed to test your general knowledge and quick wittedness. If you get eight of them right you are pretty good. If you get fewer than five you are not too observing.

A NATURE NOTE

Dear Sir:

Although I am the possessor of two very large and prolific walnut trees, never a nut have I had from them these past eight years until this season, as year after year blue jays would strip the trees systematically of every nut just prior to opening of green shell cover.

But this year happily 'tis a different story as having purposely kept no cat the squirrels have thrived and by their shrill squawking and activities amidst the branches put the wind up the jays, so that I scarce see one in a day.

But this is not all... as I look out of my bedroom window by the lakeside in the morning I can see the squirrels at work harvesting the nuts, as they come thudding down through space in clusters—thud-thud.

This has been going on daily is now almost bare of nuts, and for some weeks now and the tree it has been an easy matter for me to salvage dally off the ground a very handsome quantity of nuts

Committee Formed For Emergent Epidemics

A meeting called by Dr. G. W. Meyer at the request of Dr. Matthew, chairman of a committee for emergent epidemics, was held recently at First Aid Post, Ganges.

Following the reading of correspondence and resolution sent, Dr. Meyer asked for discussion on the matter, which resulted in a central committee being formed, on which the following were elected: Chairman, Rev. J. Dewar; committee, Mrs. J. Peterson, R.N., matron of the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital, Mrs. Walter Adams, R.N., Mrs. R. Toynbee, Mrs. Gordon Roade. It was arranged to form sub-committee and members are asked to report at a general meeting to be held at 2.30 p.m. on Oct. 31 at the Ganges First Aid Post.

In green shell, four pitfalls now of dried shelled nuts in fact, after processing.

So I have very friendly feelings towards my squirrels and take care to leave dally beneath the trees a generous share of the green nuts cast down, for the squirrels to store away. Because this October, 1944, is a red letter month for me and you bet I shall certainly not starve the goose that cast down the golden eggs.

THANKSGIVING TEA, GANGES

A Thanksgiving Tea organized held recently at the Log Cabin, by St. George's Altar Guild was Ganges, kindly lent for the occasion by Mrs. Le Fevre.

Over 50 members and friends attended and the tea, which was under the general convenship of Mrs. Jack Abbot, realized nearly $30 towards a fund for the purchase of a new reading desk for St. George's Church.

The Cabin was decorated with autumn flowers and assisting the convener with tea were Mrs. G. H. Holmes, Mrs. H. C. Carter, Mrs. H. Noon and Miss Elsy Price. A few articles of home produce were sold by Mrs. F. Stacey and an attractive cake iced, decorated and surmounted by a basket of grapes, was donated to the tea by Mrs. Le Fevre.

School Board to Sponsor Evening Class

At a recent meeting of North Saanich Consolidated School Board the trustees considered the request of several residents that an evening class in industrial arts be established at the High school.

The board decided to sponsor such a class provided that a group of at least a dozen were sufficiently interested to enroll and carry on the work throughout the fall and winter term.

A meeting to survey the type of course desired and to organize will be held at the High school on Thursday evening, Nov. 9, at 7.30.

The principal has prepared a tentative syllabus which may be obtained by phoning 208 during the day or 79R in the evening or by calling at the High school.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S Health and Welfare PROGRAMME

PROBABLY no province in Canada has developed a better foundation for an over-all Social Service programme than British Columbia, expressing in a practical way its faith in the truism that the people's well-being is a nation's most valuable asset.

Experience gained during the depression of the 1930's, when governments (Dominion, Provincial and Municipal) were catapulted into the complicated field of social services, has been used as a basis for more studied and comprehensive plans, and steady, consistent progress has been made.

In the above-mentioned emergency, when legislation, policies and administration were admittedly haphazard, little or no co-ordination of social welfare activities was undertaken. But it was during these pioneer days that the necessity for a permanent planned programme was realized. Gradually plans have been evolved to ensure against a recurrence of the want, suffering and deterioration of health prevalent during periods of economic depression.

Apart from activities primarily concerned with education and prevention, here are some measures adopted by the Provincial Government of British Columbia to cope with social welfare problems:

1. The Legislature has recognized the need to provide for the welfare of the people of this province by increasing its appropriation for health and other welfare services from approximately $2,500,000 in 1933 to about $4,500,000 in 1943. These figures do not include old age pensions, but as the Old Age Pensions Act is now administered by the Provincial Secretary, these pensions are included in 1944-45 health and welfare estimates amounting to $12,000,000.
2. Throughout the province, five health units have been developed in addition to the Greater Vancouver Metropolitan Area, staffed by Public Health Physicians and Nurses, Sanitary Inspectors and Statistical Clerks. The Central Vancouver Island and Prince Rupert units were fortunately organized in time to cope with problems arising out of war conditions in these areas. After the war the complete programme will be put into effect as quickly as personnel can be obtained. The function of such personnel is to co-ordinate all medical and other resources of a community with the technical and specialized services of the Provincial Board of Health.
3. For the administration of Social Assistance the province has been divided into five regions, in which have been established nineteen District Offices, so that rural as well as urban residents may be served by Social Workers when needed.
4. Social assistance is available to help families or individuals who through illness or other exigency are unable to maintain a standard of living compatible with health needs. Such help may be in the form of financial assistance in the home; boarding, foster home or institutional care; hospitalization.
5. There is authority and personnel to protect children without adequate guardianship, and funds to provide foster home care.

This summarized and incomplete description of the services available will nevertheless indicate that a health and welfare programme broad in scope is being developed that will place British Columbia in a position to take full advantage without delay of any Federal action to implement a Social Security plan.

Further announcements on this subject, containing more detailed information, will be issued in the near future.

Minister.

Games, etc. were played; refreshments were served and Rev. Canon King thanked the ladies for their kindness in undertaking this. He told the gathering he had proposed such an evening but had left it to the ladies which they did very well. Mr. J. S. Stigings, church warden, also thanked the ladies for such a grand evening and supper. "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" terminated the evening.

GALIANO ISLAND

At a representative meeting of the women of Galiano held at "Greenways" on Friday last, it was decided to hold a whist drive in the near future to raise funds which will be spent on cigarettes and chocolates for Christmas gifts for the Galiano members of the armed forces at home and abroad. PEARS GIVE HIGH YIELD

The following report is part of the regular monthly report issued by the Saanichton Experimental Station.

The harvesting of a heavy crop of Bartlett pears was completed Sept. 8. Picking was started with pressure tests ranging from 19 to 21 pounds and with only fruit of marketable size being taken from trees. Immediately following the first picking a paraffine spray was applied and the second picking was made 11 days later. At this time fruit had sized well and pressure tests were not below 16 pounds. No detrimental effect from the use of paraffine has been noticed and there is some evidence that maturity was retarded while the fruit was sizing.

Yields from old Boussock trees grafted to Bartlett in the spring of 1942 show that eight trees topworked produced 686 pounds of marketable fruit and eight trees frameworked produced 1,772 pounds, making a total yield since grafting of 774 pounds for the topworked trees and 2,870 pounds for the frameworked trees. From another orchard area 21 trees yielded a total of 10,909 pounds or 519.5 pounds per tree. This fruit graded out 46.4% number one, 27.3% number two, and 26.3% culls.

Two cases of typhoid under treatment at the Isolation Hospital in Victoria, entered the hospital from Saanich but did not contact the disease there, according to Dr. J. L. Gayton, Saanich health officer. The cases, which are progressing favorably, are the son and daughter of a Canadian soldier on active service.

The children had been in two or three other localities before moving to Saanich a day or so before the illness struck.

Source of the disease has not yet been determined.

She read two letters from the Solarium thanking the chapter for the sum of $250 to support a cot for the ensuing year; and for a further contribution of $234 which was used for the purchase of special medical boots for the children.

Mrs. Goddard then read a letter from National War Services, asking for personal comfort bags for service an civilian women and children in Britain.

Mrs. Goddard had made the print bags during the summer and prepared them for filling, and was congratulated by the chapter upon her excellent work. Several members took bags to fill personally, but Mrs. Baker moved, and Mrs. Bruce seconded, that the chapter funds be used to fill at least ten bags, which motion was carried.

A further letter from Provincial War Services, asking for a contribution to a collection of wedding dresses being made for the use of women in Britain was unfavorably received by the chapter, who felt that chapter funds should be used for more essential purposes.

Concerning the Brownies and Guides sponsored by the Allies chapter, Mrs. Baker reported that she hoped Mrs. Contes would carry on with her splendid work with the Brownies, and that the Guide captain, Mrs. Eckert, would continue as captain so long as she stayed in Sidney.

Mrs. Johnston gave a brief summary of an article on penicillin which had been brought to her attention by a member of the community, and which deplored the scarcity and high cost of this valuable medicine. On motion of Mrs. Bruce, seconded by Mrs. Goddard, it was decided that the following resolution be sent forward to Provincial:

"Be it resolved that the amount and cost of the penicillin now being manufactured be made known to the public, with a view to discovering the reason for the present high price of treatment with penicillin and its scarcity for civilian use."

On motion of Mrs. Bruce, seconded by Mrs. Baker, the chapter decided to order the same wreath as last year for the Remembrance Day service.

Mrs. Harper moved the adjournment of the meeting, which closed with the singing of "God Save the King." Ten was served by Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Donald Baker, and the members enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Padfrey, a guest of Mrs. Harper, who is an I.O.D.E. member from the Peace, Hill chapter, near Edmonton.

THE SEA WILL GIVE UP TREASURE to men who think of tomorrow

SALVAGE SUBMARINE OF TOMORROW! ... Already more than 40 million tons of shipping have been sunk in World War II. What a treasure trove of valuable metals and non-perishable cargoes may be reclaimed with these powerful undersea craft ... equipped with salvaging cables and with decompression chambers for diving operations. They're coming ... planned by men who think of tomorrow!

MEN who think of tomorrow are planning many startling post-war engineering enterprises. The salvage of deep sea treasure by giant submarines is one of the most practical ... and profitable.

But until the day arrives when men and machines are free for such fascinating exploits, we have a lot of salvaging to do on the home front!

For instance, the need for waste paper has never been more urgent than it is now. Are you salvaging yours? ... Gigantic quantities of explosives must continue to flow across the sea to our armed forces. That takes glycerine and glycerine takes kitchen fats. Are you salvaging every drop you can?

There is no respite for anybody in the kind of a war we're waging. None for the soldier, none for those at home ... None of us is through with the job until the last enemy flag comes down. And that means, among other things, buying more and more War Savings Certificates and Victory Bonds, and it means hanging onto them, too!

Tomorrow will come, as it always has ... but it will be the brighter for the sacrifices we make today. Let us all be MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW ... and get ready for it NOW!

Sidney Soldier Trades In Edibles In France

The following extract from a letter received by Mrs. G. A. Bernard, Fourth Street, Sidney, was sent by her son, Sgt. J. O. Bernard, who is serving in France with the Canadian Army.

"Don't think for a minute that I don't like to hear about things around home. Although I don't know the folks or the place, it's part of what we haven't got over here and I like to hear what you do from day to day. Things here are just the opposite and I don't like writing about the war, we get that 24 hours a day and that's enough. I've seen plenty to suit the average guy. Although bombs and shells don't worry me very much, other peoples nerves get me down and I've got two guys with me that are scared stiff. Jerry is one tough hombre and does not leave his position unless he has to. I had a couple of good laughs last week. While the boys were getting the meals . . . the labels and names are usually rubbed off the cans, so we are at a loss as to the contents. We usually set the cans in hot water to heat them up. At one place we were getting a meal and were in doubt as to what we were getting, as usual . . . when we opened up the cans we had one tin of boiled jam. On another we had a can of margarine, rather hard to balance on hard tack when melted. . . . Try it some time!

"One day we even had a can of tea. It's very hard to tell as its mixed with milk powder and sugar and does not rattle. . . . also, I might add, it makes a lousy drink. We get the odd egg now and then. I made a trade for two decks of Limey cigs and a bar of soap for a dozen eggs, they usually want

WHO NOTICED THE COW?

Last week was Newspaper Week - October 1-8—when the importance and value of the weekly press was unflinchingly set forth. No apologies are therefore necessary in publishing the following story on the front page, just as it was issued by Ronald Kenyva, of the W.P.T.B. Here it is:

Does the public read advertisements?

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board recently made a test of this point and received a roaring affirmative.

The board has been publishing advertisements giving the hard facts of the supply situation to the people of Canada. Advertisements to date have dealt with milk, children's underwear and sugar.

The milk display was the first, and to find out if these advertisements are studied by the public, a little thumb-nail sketch of a farmer milking a cow was incorporated. The farmer was on the left side of the cow instead of on the correct right side.

Then the row started. Letters of protest and indignation poured in to the local offices, regional offices and headquarters of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Even retired shipmasters now on the land pointed out that the lubber was on the port side instead of being on the starboard side.

The board sat back and beamed; its advertisements had been read!

Used Bicycles

Maximum prices have been set for all types of used bicycles, S. Godfrey, used goods administrator, has announced.

Prices are based on three classifications — rebuilt bicycles, equivalent to rebuilt bicycles and bicycles requiring repairs. The seller must guarantee first two type of machines for periods ranging from 30 to 90 days, depending on sale price.

There's MORE to do

On the fighting front our men are still "slugging it out". Each advance . . . each new sector . . . each mile that the battle front is extended . . . is hard going. Much fighting lies ahead.

There's more to be done on the home front, too. More money is needed to enable our country to carry her share of the war's cost.

Our duty is clear . . . we, at home, must provide the money. Canada must get this money from Canadians.

for EVERYBODY

Fortunately, most of us have good incomes. We can do our share.

But it is the extra effort that wins battles and we must be prepared to make extra effort on the home front. Canada's borrowing needs have been increased by some three hundred and twenty million dollars. That's extra effort that we, at home, must make. We must provide the money that is needed . . . more money than ever before.

We must keep faith with our fighting men. We must continue to work and save . . . and lend. We must all lend more.

Expiration Of Coupons

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board announces that all coupons in ration books 3 and 4 expire on December 31, including the 10 "F" canning sugar coupons, sugar coupons 14 to 45, "D" coupons 1 to 16 and preserve coupons 17 to 32.

Car Prices Change

Your car or truck had a birth-day on October 1. That day marked the beginning of a new year in the life of your car under board orders covering prices at which cars and trucks may be sold. Under Wartime Prices and Trade Board orders the value of a car or truck grows less as its years increase. Those contemplating the sale of a used passenger car or used truck should get in touch with their nearest board office to obtain correct information as to prices.

Sorry... but the foot is too big for the shoe

While demands for telephone service have increased steadily during the war, the equipment necessary to provide service hasn't. The Telephone Company has been prevented from making any material additions to its system. That's why so many people have to do without telephone service these days. The foot just won't fit the shoe.

Factories that used to produce telephone equipment are now needed to fill war orders.

The telephone situation is likely to get worse before it gets better. In the meantime, essential needs for telephone service, particularly in connection with the war effort, must come first.

First aid and a warm drink are given to a rescued man after he had been buried under debris for three and a half hours, when a German flying bomb fell in southern England.

History Of The Flying Bomb

On the night of June 12-13, 1944, the first flying bomb fell on southern England.

During the weeks that followed more than 21,000 people were killed or injured, and more than 1,104,000 houses destroyed or damaged. The damage would have been far greater but for the preparations and steps taken to counter the attack: and it would have been multiplied still further but for the measures taken, even before the bombing began, against the factories and launching sites in Germany and France.

Spasmodic attempts at robot bombing are still being made, however: it is generally conceded that the greater danger is over.

A chronological summary on the robot bomb is hereby presented:

April, 1943: First reports reach London that Germans were developing a long-range bombardment weapon of novel type.

May, 1943: Reconnaissance photographs show that at Peenemunde there appeared to be a very large experimental station.

Later photographs reveal, air object identified as a pilotless jet-propelled aircraft.

August, 1943: British Bomber Command raids Peenemunde.

November, 1943: Reconnaissance photographs reveal the Germans were building all along the French coast from Calais to Chirbourg a series of concrete structures similar to those seen at Peenemunde.

December, 1943: British and U.S. Air Forces begin attacks on the flying-bomb sites.

March, 1944: Detailed arrangements for the defence of London against flying bomb planned.

June 12-13, 1944: First flying bomb falls on southern England.

June 17, 1944: First heavy flying bomb attack on southern England.

During June, 40% of bombs launched were brought down by fighters, guns and balloons.

Mid-July, 1944: Decision reached to move entire anti-aircraft belt to the coast. Some 600 heavy and 500 Bofors guns moved and re-located; guns out of action only two days.

August 28, 1944: Out of 101 bombs, 97 brought down and only four reached London.

During 80 days' bombardment, approximately 8,070 bombs were launched. Of these, some 2,300 (29%) got through into the London region.

Twenty-five percent of bombs launched were inaccurate; many dived into the sea—others strayed as far as Norfolk and Northampton.

Forty-six percent of the bombs were brought down by the combined effort of guns, fighters and balloons.

From the beginning of the attack to the end of August, 5,470 persons were killed and 15,934 injured.

About 92% of the total casualties occurred in the London region.

From August, 1943, over 100,000 tons of bombs were dropped over launching sites and experimental stations. On these operations British and U.S. Air Forces together lost nearly 450 aircraft and approximately 2,000 pilots and aircrews.

Among the well-known buildings damaged were: Hampton Court Palace, Royal Naval College, Greenwich; Royal Lodge, Windsor; Guards Chapel, London; Shoreditch Church, Tyburn Convent, Lincoln's Inn, Staple Inn, Patent Office, Australia House, Moorfield Eye Hospital, Royal Free Hospital, St. Thomas' Hospital, Billingsgate Market, Dr. Johnson's House, Gough Square; Dulwich Art Gallery, Dulwich College.

To the end of August 149 churches, 111 churches and 69 hospitals were damaged.

CANADA'S VETERANS Their Post-War Opportunities

The third in a series of advertisements to inform the people of Canada of plans to re-establish men and women of the armed forces. To get full details, save and read every advertisement.

For complete information, write for the booklet, "Back to Civil Life."

Training and Education—Doorways to Opportunity

SOCIAL SECURITY MEASURES

In planning Canada's re-establishment program, its framers worked with one principal idea in mind. This was that the only answer to the problem of permanent re-establishment is a job, and that the surest way to get and hold that job is by the skill necessary for it.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Every ex-service man or woman who will be assisted in re-establishment by training is eligible to have it. There is provision for paying fees for all courses and, in addition, the ex-service man or woman may receive maintenance grants up to:

$60 monthly if single;

$80 monthly for a man and his wife, together with children's allowances.

This training is available for the period of service to a maximum of one year, but can be extended beyond that period, if necessary, and if service is more than one year.

EDUCATIONAL TRAINING

This is available to all who are admitted to university within 15 months of discharge and, as in vocational training, fees are paid and there are maintenance allowances up to:

$60 monthly for a single man;

$80 monthly for a man and his wife, together with allowances for dependent children.

These allowances will be continued on a month for month basis of the time in the services, providing all examinations are passed. Outstanding students may have assistance continued to completion of the course.

SOCIAL SECURITY MEASURES

Under the re-establishment program Canada's veterans who, within 18 months of discharge from the services, become ill or unemployed may draw maintenance allowances up to $50 if single and $70 for a man and his wife, together with children's allowances. The out-of-work benefits are for those fit and able to work, but for whom there is no work immediately available. In the case of serious illness there is free treatment and hospitalization for any condition in the year following discharge.

As a further security measure, every veteran who enters insurable employment is entitled, after 15 weeks in that employment, to unemployment maintenance credit as though the whole period in the services since July 1, 1941, had been spent in the insurable employment.

VETERANS' WELFARE OFFICERS ARE STATIONED IN KEY CENTRES THROUGHOUT CANADA. THEY ADVISE AND ASSIST EX-SERVICE PERSONNEL, AND SHOULD BE CONSULTED ON ALL PROBLEMS.

PENSIONS AND NATIONAL HEALTH

O.K. FOR EAVESTROUGH

Restrictions on the purchase of eavestroughing have been removed by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. It is no longer necessary to secure a permit before buying eavestroughing.

To Aid Farmers In Clearing Land

Establishment of a network of machinery depots throughout the province for the purpose of facilitating farmers and settlers to clear the land, is being devised by the provincial government for the purpose of cutting down the cost of clearing and thereby opening up lands for fresh settlers, it was announced by Premier John Hart, minister of lands.

Details are now being worked out with the Hon. K. C. MacDonald, minister of agriculture, and it is hoped to be able to have this system in operation in time for post-war development.

In its broad outline, the scheme is as follows:

The government will secure bulldozers and other equipment useful in the clearing of land and establish in strategic areas throughout the province. A local committee would then be formed to handle the operation of the equipment, renting it out to farmers and settlers for a very nominal sum. In this way, it is hoped to eliminate the laborious and expensive process that is now in use of using stump powder and teams of horses which, in the end, cannot cope with the larger stumps which, of necessity, must be left in the ground, thus creating a source of annoyance and waste of land to the farmer.

The Allied Freighter Incident

An Allied freighter was stopped off the Pacific Seaboard by a Japanese submarine and boarded by Japanese sailors. Two Allied officers were asked for by name and taken off. The ship was torpedoed. Other ships in the area at the same time were allowed to go their way.

How did they know?

Enemy agents ashore obviously had been in contact with the submarine. These agents must have received inside information; someone had talked. This should be a warning to all of us to watch every word we say, for enemy agents are everywhere.

Oct. 25 Deadline For Troops

"Wrap it well and mail it early," is the advice of the Fleet Mail Office to Canadians sending Christmas parcels overseas. It is expected that there will be over half a million Christmas parcels destined for men and women in the armed forces. To assure safe delivery, Canadians are asked, by the Fleet Mail Office, to use tough wrapping paper and strong string. They are warned against mailing anything packed in glass, such as peanut butter or preserves. The latest mailing date for which parcels can be sent with any hope of reaching troops by Christmas is Oct. 25 for United Kingdom and France.

CBC News Announcer

It's Earl Cameron's voice that listeners hear on the summary of the day's news nightly over the Trans-Canada Network of the CBC at 7 p.m. Pacific time.

Mr. Cameron is a news announcer because that's what he wanted to be—and it was almost that simple. He was working in the retail hardware business in Moose Jaw when the CBC talent scout arrived to conduct auditions. Not very long after that, the better business men of Moose Jaw saw one of their best depart for the east.

Now, the former hardware authority presents the latest news reports to listeners from coast to coast—including the folks back home in Moose Jaw.

CIVIL DEFENCE GROUP SHOWN PICTURES

Over 100 members of the North Saanich Civil Defence Unit met in the auditorium of the High school at Sidney on Monday night to discuss plans for the winter's activities. F. J. Baker, chairman of the unit spoke briefly, warning members that vigilance must not be relaxed. Many surprises may come to make the war last longer," said Mr. Baker, "many of us did not know the meaning of the word robot a few weeks ago." He stressed the necessity of keeping together, "it is only human nature to relax," he continued, "especially after five years of preparedness."

The speaker hoped that something had been gained by the training received by the group. He exhorted those present to take care of the equipment issued. "If you use the stirrup pump for spraying the orchard, for goodness sake clean it well, and, please don't use the tin hats for fern bowls." Touching briefly on the training for the winter, Mr. Baker suggested that, in order to avoid monotony, small groups meet in an informal way and study refresher courses in First Aid. "Some day," he continued, "this might come in very useful." He then introduced Sgt. Hughes, of the Provincial Police and member of the Provincial Advisory Council, who showed several films of the Allied Armies in action.

Following the films Robin Cran, of the War Finance Committee, Unit 39, showed an inspirational film with narrative by H. Napier Moore. The film gave graphic evidence of the need for complete support of the Seventh Victory Loan which opens on Oct. 23.

Following the pictures the audience removed to another room where volunteer workers served refreshments. Informal talks followed with each group discussing the winter's plans with their wardens.

Schools for Wives

Schools for soldiers' wives who wish to write to their husbands have been started at army training centres in Northern India. Besides learning to read and write in some centres these women are also taught to knit and sew—the output being used as war comforts for troops.

You'll enjoy an evening of fun at the regular Saturday evening dance at the K.P. Hall, Fourth St., Sidney. Adm. 50c.

Large Milk Figures

Milk figures have been prominent in British news this week. The amount supplied in the United Kingdom in June, 1944, was 145,025,000 gallons; in June in the 3 years preceding the war, this figure was 123,072,000 gallons. The increase is partly due to the free distribution of milk to schools. There are 30,426 schools participating in this scheme, and the total amount of milk used each day is more than 230,000 gallons.

30,000 Builders

Building labor in London has been doubled in order to repair houses damaged by flying bombs. Skilled workers from all parts of the country have been drafted in and men from the services are assisting. In the middle of June, those engaged on general repair work in London numbered 24,000. By July 3 the total had been raised to more than 30,000, and by the end of July nearly 60,000 were employed.

Dependents of deceased members of the forces may apply, provided they were eligible for dependents' allowance at the date of the member's death, or if not eligible for dependents' allowance providing they were dependent upon the member at the time and in receipt of assigned pay from him.

Canadians who have been discharged from other Empire forces during the present war may apply, if they now are domiciled and resident in Canada, and were domiciled in Canada at the outbreak of hostilities.

Former members of Canadian forces who qualify must use the printed application form, but dependents and Canadians who served in other Empire forces may submit their application by letter. Dependents, however, should be guided by the printed form and must indicate the members' name and service number, state the extent to which they were dependent upon the discharged or deceased member, and whether they were receiving dependents' allowance or assigned pay at the termination of the member's service.

Canadians who served in other Empire forces should give full particulars of service, the name of the force and unit in which they served, place of discharge, reason for discharge, full name and service number. In all these cases the address to which letters of application should be mailed are:

For Naval personnel or their dependents: The Secretary, Naval Board, Naval Service Headquarters, Ottawa, Ont.

For Army personnel or their dependents: The Secretary, Department of National Defence (Army), Ottawa, Ont. Attention: Paymaster-General.

For Air Force personnel or their dependents: The Secretary, Department of National Defence for Air, Ottawa, Ont. Attention: Records Officer.

Due to the number of persons who have been honorably discharged up to the present time, headquarters emphasize the importance of early action by applicants in order that claims for the gratuity may be cleared reasonably soon after the machinery goes into full operation.

However, payments will not commence prior to January 1, 1945, and in some cases there will be further delay, depending upon the time the applications are received.

This announcement pertains only to War Service Gratuity. Public announcement will be made at a later date respecting the manner in which applications for the re-establishment credit are to be made.

Make it a date! K.P. Hall, Dance, Sidney, Saturday night, 60c. Good floor, good music.
